New Summary Reports Now on PDC Web

Summary reports on top 50 Contributors to statewide ballot measures and selected local elections are now featured on the PDC homepage.

The 2002 Election section will continue to feature who's running for office, contribution and expenditure totals for statewide ballot measures, Supreme Court and Legislative campaigns as well as the top 50 contributors to Legislative campaigns. What's new is a dynamic compilation of the largest contributors to statewide ballot measures and campaign finance information on selected local elections for positions such as County Assessor, Auditor and Sheriff. Up to date information on the Seattle Monorail (Seattle Proposition #1) is also available from the PDC website.

To access the summary reports select Candidate and Ballot Measure Summary Information from the PDC homepage. Each report is dynamically updated as new filings are received.

For more information regarding the current election or the PDC go to www.pdc.wa.gov and look under 2002 Election.
